dalí museum wedding guidelines at a glance

We’ve provided this quick reference guide to assist you in planning your wedding at The Dalí Museum. Please refer to the Policies and Guidelines document for more information, or contact The Dalí Events Team if you have any questions. And thank you for choosing to hold your special day at The Dalí.

1. It is highly recommended for wedding parties to hire a professional licensed wedding coordinator. This is a special day and should be left to a professional. The coordinator will be present on the day of the event and will be responsible for your specific needs, such as logistics, song play, bouquet toss, and send off. They will help with planning, and attend any scheduled walkthrough or rehearsal. The Dalí Museum Events Team will also be present on the day of the event, and will be responsible for the venue itself; facility and vendor needs, security, janitorial, and set-up/breakdown.

2. Weddings at The Dalí will require a signed contract, security deposit, and appropriate insurance.

3. Weddings at The Dalí take place seven days a week, from 7pm – 11pm. Additional time may be accommodated for an added fee and must be approved and contracted in advance. Please note, for garden receptions additional time can only be requested for Friday and Saturday nights.

4. Rehearsals must be scheduled at least two weeks in advance. Due to a busy events schedule, rehearsals are not guaranteed for the day or evening before.

5. Wedding guests have access to the galleries from 7pm to 9pm.

6. Early "first look" photos with the immediate wedding party can be arranged at 6pm, or one hour before the start of the contracted event. First look photos must be arranged in advance with the Events Team.

7. No photography of any kind is permitted in the special exhibition gallery. Flash photography is not permitted in the permanent gallery.

8. There is a 2 hour time allowance for set-up and 1.5 hours for breakdown. The Dalí Museum will not accept or be responsible for materials delivered prior to or left post the contracted times of the event.

9. The Dalí Museum provides a limited number of in-stock tables and chairs based on availability. Any additional furniture needed must be rented from a separate vendor.

10. Any linens required will need to be rented from a separate vendor or caterer.

11. Caterers for the event must be chosen from The Dalí Museum’s Approved Catering List.

12. All beverages must be purchased through your Approved Caterer. Last call for alcohol will be 30 minutes prior to the conclusion of the contracted event.

13. Receptions held in the garden are required to rent additional lighting through our exclusive lighting vendor, The Production Crew.

14. As a downtown venue, there may be events with the City, Mahaffey Theater, Albert Whitted Airport and/or The Rowdies that affect your rental. The Dalí Museum is not accountable for noise or events in the area, e.g. The Grand Prix, music/food festivals, races, and fireworks.
15. Due to the Museum’s proximity to the airport, laser lights are not permitted.
16. Parking for events is free, based on availability. Valet parking is available for an additional fee through our exclusive parking vendor, Sunshine Valet.
17. All vendors must be licensed and insured.
18. The Dalí Museum is a non-smoking facility. Cigarettes, cigars, vape pens, and other smoking devices are not permitted inside the Museum.
19. Hanging items from the walls, windows, or staircase is prohibited.
20. Items strictly prohibited by The Dalí: confetti, glitter, bird seed, rice, flower petals, and fireworks. Open flames and candles are not permitted in any indoor space. Food, beverage, and décor are not permitted in the galleries.
21. In the event of rain, The Dalí Events Team will make a contingency plan or Rain Plan that will be discussed with you prior to the event. The contracted timeline will not change due to inclement weather.
22. Heat lamps are strongly encouraged in cooler weather and may be rented through a separate vendor.
23. Event layouts are subject to change and are at the discretion of The Dalí Events Team.
