Salvador Dalí is one of the most celebrated artists of all time, and one of the most complex and controversial figures of the 20th century. The Dalí Museum stands in tribute to the Surrealist master whose name it bears, and it is home to an unparalleled collection of Dalí artworks.

The Museum's mission is to care for and share the collection, preserving Dalí's legacy for generations to come. Through Dalí-inspired events, exhibits and experiences, the Museum serves as an active resource in the cultural life of our community and the world at large.
